

7) Does your child use words differently than the actual meaning? Give examples.

8) Does your child have any verbal expressions that are used over and over?

9) Does your child call anyone by name?

SOCIAL DOMAIN:

1) Does your child play with brothers or sisters?

2) Does your child play with others his age?

3) Is your child more responsive to play with an adult or another child?

4) If your child plays with others, what kind of play? Is primarily running or chase games? Do you see any very aggressive behavior?

5) Can your child play group games?

- 4) Does your child have a favorite object? How would he react if the object was taken away?

- 5) Did your child ever play baby games, like Peek-a-boo or patty-cake?

- 6) Is there anything unusual about the way your child plays with toys? Does he play with toys in the way the manufacturer intended?

- 7) Does your child engage in pretend or imaginative play?

SENSORY DOMAIN:

- 1) Has your child ever had a fascination with spinning objects? Describe.

- 2) Describe your child's eating habits since infancy. Any trouble with certain colors, textures, temperatures?

- 3) Have you noted any unusual reactions to sounds or lights? Describe.

- 4) How does your child react to changes in daily routine, room arrangement, or the route you use to drive somewhere? Describe.

- 5) How does your child react to pain?

- 6) Has your child ever had an unusual interest in or movement of his hands? Does he engage in repetitive movements?

- 7) Does your child ever look closely at objects, look at them from the corner of his eyes, or smell objects?

- 8) Does your child pinch, hit, or otherwise harm himself?