

Directors of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion

Ta'janette Sconyers, PhD

Outreach and Intern Experience

Virtual Office Hours: Wednesdays from 6pm–8pm CST (unless otherwise noted) or by appointment

See Dr. Sconyers about DEI-related issues, ideas, needs, or successes you have experienced or noticed; if you need support; etc.

Penelope Asay, PhD, ABPP

Operations

Virtual Office Hours: Tuesdays from 5pm–7pm CST (unless otherwise noted) or by appointment

See Dr. Asay about questions, concerns, feedback, and processing about interpersonal and systemic DEI issues, how to think about and prepare for entering future systems with an eye on DEI issues

GET TO KNOW YOUR DIRECTORS!

Credentials: PhD in Counseling Psychology from University of Missouri

Internship: St. Louis Internship Consortium

Clinical Specialties: OCD and Anxiety

Resides in: St. Louis, MO (the ancestral, traditional, and contemporary lands of the Osage Nation and additional tribes)

Hobbies: Singing, candle-making, and connecting with people and nature

Day(s) of significance: My birthday (May 16th), Juneteenth (June 19th)

Credentials: PhD in Counseling Psychology from University of Maryland and Board Certified in Counseling Psychology, American Board of Professional Psychology (ABPP)

Internship: Purdue University Counseling and Psychological Services

Clinical Specialties: Women, Career Concerns, Existential Concerns, Groups

Resides in: Oakland, CA

Hobbies: Trivia, connecting with nature and being outdoors, enjoying podcasts

Day(s) of significance: May 9 (my birthday)