United Assessment: Position Announcement

Full Job Title: Senior Psychologist

Locations: New York & Connecticut + Travel & WFH Opportunities

Salary: Competitive – $120,000-$160,000

Date Posted: 10/15/2023

Job Summary & Responsibilities:

- Administration of psychological, neuropsychological, and psychoeducational tests, documentation of behavioral observations, and compilation of comprehensive reports, assessing for complex, comorbid presentations

- Supervision and training of postdoctoral and neuropsychological trainees

- Effective, efficient, and timely verbal communication and professional writing

- Ability to work under pressure to prioritize workload, manage simultaneous tasks, and meet deadlines within a fast-paced and changing environment

- Motivated self-starter with positive attitude, flexibility, and enterprising spirit, with strong team ethic and ability to take ownership of responsibilities

- Administrative tasks related to managing a psychology practice and performance of other duties as assigned

Required Qualifications/Skills:

- Ph.D. or Psy.D. in Neuropsychology, Clinical Psychology, Counseling Psychology, or School Psychology from an APA-accredited program

- Active and valid license to practice psychology

- 3+ years of assessment experience

- Exceptional clinical customer service with children, adolescents, and adults

- Extraordinary interpersonal and communication skills and detail orientation

- Ability to work flexibly and independently to meet goals and deadlines

- Collaboration in multidisciplinary teams, establishing and maintaining strong and effective working relationships

Preferred Qualifications/Skills:

- Demonstrated expertise in psychological assessment and clinical work with high-complexity, high-acuity cases, including mood, anxiety, personality, trauma-related, psychotic, developmental, and other psychiatric disorders

- Bilingual proficiency

admin@unitedassessment.com   unitedassessment.com

(646) 828-6627

About United Assessment:

United Assessment is a multistate, psychodiagnostic, assessment practice that serves the full spectrum of psychiatric and neuropsychiatric conditions (e.g., neurodevelopmental, neurocognitive, mood, anxiety, personality, eating, obsessive-compulsive, substance, trauma, somatic, dissociative, and psychotic disorders). United Assessment was founded to provide a consistent and reliable source of evaluation services for individuals of all ages. With institutional partners, ranging from private psychiatric hospitals to residential treatment facilities, our testing yields essential data used by clients at all levels of care. We are committed to success through insight, and are dedicated to increasing access to high quality psychological testing to help every client reach their potential.

To Apply:

Please send a C.V. and two copies of redacted psychological, neuropsychological, or psychoeducational assessment reports or clinical writing samples to: admin@unitedassessment.com. Please also state preferred location (New York or Connecticut).

Notes:

United Assessment is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate in employment based on race, religion (including religious dress and grooming practices), color, sex/gender (including pregnancy, childbirth, breastfeeding or related medical conditions), sex stereotype, gender identity/gender expression/transgender (including whether or not you are transitioning or have transitioned) and sexual orientation; national origin (including language use restrictions and possession of a driver's license issued to persons unable to prove their presence in the United States as authorized under federal law [Vehicle Code section 12801.9]), ancestry, physical or mental disability, medical condition, genetic information/characteristics, marital status/registered domestic partner status, age (40 and over), sexual orientation, military or veteran status, or any other basis protected by federal, state or local law, or ordinance or regulation.

If you are unable to complete this application due to a disability, contact us to ask for an accommodation or an alternative application process.